

SUPER TRUCK PARKING SWEEPSTAKES!

YOUR COMPANY COULD BE THE WINNER!

Due to popularity, the 2012 V-Twin Expo by Easyriders in Cincinnati will again host a drawing for the prestigious parking spots outside of the main show entrance at the Duke Energy Center and inside on the show floor. To qualify, simply toss your company name in the hat to win your chance to park your professional, full-size semi truck at the world's largest V-twin trade show; the V-Twin Expo by Easyriders.

There are several spots available for the drawing. In an effort to make the drawing fair, a lottery system has been implemented. To enter your company for this drawing simply email me all required information:

- Submit by email to:
JBetlach@paisanopub.com
by midnight January 6, 2012.

The lucky winners will be randomly pulled and notified within days of the drawing.

See you in Cincinnati February 4, 5, 6, 2012!

Good Luck,

V-Twin Expo Show Producer
